The definition of an "Institutional" client is: "A holder of a license to act as a financial institution, hereunder but not limited to: investment firms, credit institutions, insurance companies, investment management companies and pension funds and their management companies or a representative of a financial institution."

This definition only applies to Equity Research/Stock Screener subscription.

Islamic stock screening service

Galt & Taggart in collaboration with Saxo Bank, is proud to offer an Islamic Stock Screening service on its G&T TRADER platforms. Based on commonly accepted and transparent Islamic guidelines the screener enables clients to identify and trade Islamic compliant stocks.

More than 12,000 instruments on +25 different exchanges from New York to Tokyo are screened - A global offering in a globalized world.

Benefits

- Maximized Universe Size
 More than 12,000 stocks are screened resulting in a maximized range of Islamic-compliant investment alternatives for traders and investors.
- Islamic-compliance Credibility
 Increased compliance credibility is ensured through a researched rather than automated screening approach adapted by IdealRatings.

- Monthly Compliance
Stocks are screened on a monthly basis to ensure that most recent compliance statuses are used for investment decisions.
- Integrated Islamic-screening and Trading
The service offers an integrated solution providing both Islamic-compliance status and trading rather than depending on two isolated providers. This integrated service therefore results in both time and cost reduction.
